NOEL D. BAGANO, CESO VI

Schools Division Superintendent, Schools Division Office - Valenzuela City

Dear Mr. Bagano,

Greetings of peace! The Center for Journalism and the College of Communication at New Era University will host the two-day 2nd National Summit on Journalism with the theme: AI IN JOURNALISM: EMPOWERING MEDIA THROUGH INNOVATION WHILE PRESERVING HUMAN INTEGRITY on September 15–16, 2026, at the NEU University Hall—the same event that was postponed earlier due to Memorandum No. 117 issued by the Commission on Higher Education regarding the implementation of flexible learning during the National Emergency on Energy.

The theme emphasizes the duty of media practitioners, professionals, and educators to leverage AI for innovation, efficiency, and broader public engagement while protecting credibility, integrity, and the human voice in storytelling.

This summit will bring together media professionals and experts to share best practices, insights, and experiences in their respective fields with students and educators, highlighting AI innovation while upholding human integrity.

In view of this, we invite you to participate and to send student representatives accompanied by their teacher-advisers. The registration fee for onsite attendees covers a summit kit, two packed lunches, and a tour fee. All participants will receive a digital Certificate of Participation.
